July 2021 Ordinance Adopting the August 1, 2020, Amendments to WV State Building Code

The City of Weston will utilize a “State Building Code” appeals board instead of a separate appeals board for each national code adopted in this ordinance. This Board may also be referred to as Code Appeals Board. Code Appeals Board shall mean the board which hears appeals stemming from the State Building Code.

If any portion of this ordinance shall be deemed unconstitutional or otherwise defective, the remaining portions shall remain in force.

The City of Weston may adopt one or more appendices of these national codes that are not included in the West Virginia State Building Code. The City of Weston will make that determination to adopt appendices at a later date.

This ordinance is adopted for the benefit, health, and welfare of the people of the City of Weston, West Virginia. This ordinance shall be effective on the day after this ordinance is passed.
